

BATH ROBE CORD USED BY WOMAN TO HANG HERSELF

Suicide Left No Word to Mother or Husband as to Why She Did It.

Mrs. Mabel L. Brown, twenty-eight years old, committed suicide early today by hanging herself with the cord of a bathrobe in the bathroom of her mother's home, No. 322 Pacific street, Brooklyn.

Mrs. Brown left no word and did not sign by any letter or action her despondency or desire to die. Up to the time she went to bed last night, according to the statements of her husband and mother to the police, she appeared cheerful.

Mrs. Brown lived with her husband and his mother at No. 169 Webster avenue, in Armour Villa Park, Yonkers. Yesterday morning she and her mother-in-law came to New York to make their Christmas purchases and met their mother, Mrs. F. A. Drake. The three went shopping together, and early in the afternoon the younger Mrs. Brown went with Mrs. Drake to Brooklyn. It was agreed that her husband was to meet her at her mother's home and that they would spend the night there.

About 6 o'clock this morning Mrs. Brown left her bedroom. Her husband waited half an hour for her to return and then arose and went to find her. He found the door of the bathroom locked and, receiving no answer, forced it. His wife, in his night dress, was hanging from a clothes hook, the bath robe cord looped about her neck.

Mrs. Brown was a teacher in the Brooklyn public schools before her marriage. She and Brown were married about two and a half years ago.

NO TRIAL DIVORCE FOR HER; IT MUST BE FINAL

Doctor's Wife Sues Him for Separation and $250 a Month Alimony.

Mrs. Jennie Sheinkman, who with her four children has lived apart from her husband, Dr. Bernard Sheinkman, since 1907, under an amicable agreement after twenty years' marriage, appeared before Justice McCall in the Supreme Court today to present her plea for a decree of separation.

She said her husband at first gave her $10 a month for the support of herself and the children, but he had reduced this until he sent finally only $3 a week.

She declared she never liked their trial divorce, and was very much put out when the doctor suggested after a year of separation that, as he had made the acquaintance of a young woman for whom he had conceived a great liking, she might release him.

Her answer was this suit for a separation with alimony at the rate of $25 a month.

Dr. Sheinkman denied that he had any other love, and declared his wife was jealous and abused him.

Mrs. Sheinkman declared she never abused her husband, but when pressed as to whether she did not once threaten him with a pistol, she replied, "I may have."

She estimated the doctor's practice at over $5,000 a year, and thought she ought to have at least $3,000 of it. The doctor declared that the stories of their domestic troubles had injured his practice, he could not afford to pay more than $3 a week.

Killed by Scaffold Fall. Edward Flynn, twenty-eight years old, of No. 224 East Fourteenth street, was instantly killed and Andrew Pleuchek, aged twenty-three, of No. 695 East Fourteenth street, seriously injured this afternoon by a fall from the fifth floor to the fourth floor of a new building at No. 13 Clarkson street. The men were removing a mortar mixing board from the fifth floor to the floor below when the plank they were standing on snapped in two. Pleuchek was taken to St. Vincent's hospital, suffering concussion of the brain.

NEW JUDGES IN JERSEY.

Gov. Fort Names Mark A. Sullivan to Court of Appeals.

Gov. Fort of New Jersey today announced the appointment of Mark A. Sullivan, a young lawyer of Jersey City, to succeed the late James B. Hill in the Court of Appeals. This selection was made after a conference with Governor Wilson, who, when he takes office, will continue Sullivan's appointment for a full term of six years.

Mr. Sullivan was born in Jersey City in 1878 and has served four terms in the Assembly, being minority leader two years. The compensation of his new position amounts to about $4,000 a year.

Gov. Fort will also appoint a successor to the late Judge Gray during the week Judge Hill was a Republican and Mr. Sullivan is a Democrat, but to even matters up Gov. Fort will appoint a Republican to succeed Judge Gray, who is a Democrat.

GIRL FATALLY BURNED.

Skirt Caught as She Bent Over an Open Fireplace.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., Dec. 6.—Ellen J. Francis, eighteen years old, died in her home at East Quogue today from burns she received last night when her clothing caught fire at an open fire place.

The young woman was extracting a piece of wire from the foot of her dog, and while bending over in front of the fire place her skirt was ignited. She ran screaming into the bedroom of her sick mother, after from head to foot. The sick woman dragged herself out of bed and threw a blanket about her daughter, but before the flames were stamped out the girl had inhaled fire.

1,000 SYRIAN SCARFS

This is by far the largest number ever assembled by any establishment. The importance of the number becomes more apparent when you consider that no two of these Scarfs have the same design.

We were also the first house to import these Scarfs, which form such a picturesque part of the Syrian women's apparel. In Syria girls and young women work these Scarfs, weaving flat strips of burnished metal into black, white or colored net.

The designs take shape according to the weaver's fancy.

Prices $3.19 to $43.74

These scarfs can be made into rich dinner gowns and evening wraps. Several gowns made in our own workrooms from these scarfs, on sale on the second floor.

BULLETINS FOR HOLIDAY SHOPPERS

Bulletin No. 1: We emphasize by repetition the request that you SHOP EARLY—early in the day; early in the month.

Bulletin No. 2: We do not keep open evenings—nor will we between now and Christmas. We could sell many extra thousands of dollars' worth of goods by doing so—but it would be at the physical expense of our employes. Therefore we close at the usual hour each day.

Bulletin No. 3: Our Toy Store is big and bright and interesting from January to January, but during December it rises and swings into extra heights of Holiday enthusiasm. WHERE DOES SANTA CLAUS DWELL? Ask any well-informed New York child.

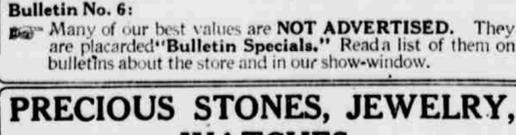

Bulletin No. 4: Important Sales—IMPORTANT because the prices have been reduced just when you want the goods. Diamonds, Straus Cut Glass, Art Bronzes, Italian Marbles, China, Silver Table Ware, Oriental Rugs and Domestic Rugs. Thousands of European Novelties that haven't been reduced are priced so attractively that you'll think they have been marked down. Our Christmas arrays are not paralleled.

Bulletin No. 5: Extra Today—A list of attractive "Tuesday Specials" advertised in Sunday's newspapers—Look for the "Tuesday Special" signs.

Bulletin No. 6: Many of our best values are NOT ADVERTISED. They are placarded "Bulletin Specials." Read a list of them on bulletins about the store and in our show-window.
